AN AXMINSTER pavement continues to trip up elderly pedestrians - and send some of them to hospital.

The situation is so bad that staff at an estate agents have bought a new first aid kit so they can carry on patching people up.

Highways bosses worked up an action plan two years ago, but have not found the money required to solve the problem.

The stretch of pavement is in West Street and has different surfaces and a differing set of gradients.

It was in August 2010 that estate agents Amanda Curtis and Phil Roberts of Fox & Sons said their workplace resembled an A&E department.

Knocked unconscious

A number of pedestrians had falls on the pavement outside, and were looked after at Fox & Sons until medics arrived.

One of them was knocked unconscious and taken to hospital, which was confirmed by the ambulance service at the time.

According to Mr Roberts, that casualty was the tenth that year that he knew about.

He contacted Devon County Council (DCC) as well as Pulman's View to air his concerns - and a newspaper story duly appeared in August 2010.

DCC found that the pavement could be improved and hoped the project would be considered for the following year's footway maintenance programme, "subject to the availability of funding". But nothing happened and Mr Roberts recently contacted Pulman's View after a spate of four falls in three weeks, one of which happened on Friday, July 13th.

All change at Farway

IT'S all change at Farway Football Club. Long-serving Andy Baily has stood down as manager after a stint that spanned 15 seasons, one of the longest periods in the Perry Street League.

Baily (pictured) told Pulman's View Sport it was a good time to stand aside and let someone else have a go after Paul King offered his services.

Baily, one of the most respected characters in local football, said he was also looking forward to watching his son Dan, who plays for Willand in the Toolstation Western League Premier Division, more often.

From the editor's chair Let's all root for Mary...

LIFE is much better when the sun is shining, don't you think?

I can't remember having written so much about the weather as I have over the past few months.

But this weekend the sun finally reappeared giving our coastal towns a long-awaited commercial boost and there are hopes it will last now the kids have broken up from school.

It's been a summer we are unlikely to forget, and not just because of the rain. The Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations in June brought communities together and now we look forward to the Olympics, which get underway on Friday.

As a sports nut I'm really looking forward to the Olympics but having had to go to London on Friday I'm pleased that I don't live just around the corner from the Olympic stadium as I used to.

London was unbelievably busy with Olympic branding on every corner, every piece of street furniture, every bus and train.

It's difficult to reconcile such blatant commercialism with the high ideals of the Olympic movement and the sooner the running and jumping starts the better. But first we will have to endure the extravagance of the opening ceremony which will probably reach new heights of crassness.

In this corner of the world all eyes will be on the performance of Mary King, from Salcombe Regis, who will be competing in her sixth Olympics as part of the Great Britain equestrian team.

Mary has been a brilliant ambassador for her sport and for her country and we wish her well in her latest endeavours to bring a medal back to East Devon to add to the one silver and one bronze she has won in previous Olympics.

We were given a taste of what's to come over the weekend when Bradley Wiggins won the Tour de France, an incredible achievement.

Let's hope there will be many more such feats over the next few weeks to make this summer even more memorable.

SEATON

'Unlikely' Old Beer road will re-open

HIGHWAY bosses say it is unlikely that Old Beer Road can be repaired and reopened.

The road collapse made headlines last week and structural engineers and geotechnical experts have been busy examining the scene since.

Speaking on Friday, county councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet member for Highways and Transportation, said: "The geotechnical and structural surveys are still on-going but local people who have seen the road and how it has fallen away will realise that it is looking increasingly unlikely that the road could be repaired and re-opened to traffic."

"However we will be considering in more detail what could be achieved in this area, even if it's just maintaining the coastal footpath, but this will require further inspection."

County and district councillor Jim Knight commented: "This is a serious blow to Seaton and Beer who rely on this route to walk in safety to the amenities and schools that either parish send their children to, and it is also a route for holiday visitors."

"I sincerely hope that the coastal walk can be retained. If not, the county council must look at providing safe passage to either parish even if this means putting in a footpath along Beer Road through to Beer."

Experts have found that the movement on Old Beer Road has been caused by a large scale slip of the cliff face rather than a small localised failure.

SIDMOUTH

Approval for new recycling centre

COUNCILLORS have approved plans for a new recycling centre near Sidmouth.

Devon County Council's Development Management Committee has unanimously backed the plans for development of the site off the C808 at Bowd, subject to it not being called in by the Secretary of State.

The scheme is also subject to planting and landscaping on land adjacent to the access road with around 5,000 trees being used to screen the site and minimise the impact on the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in which it is located.

HONITON

'Beating' for MP

MP NEIL Parish offered to come back to Honiton for another "beating" next year when he appeared before 50 or so feisty pensioners.

The Conservative MP for Tiverton and Honiton had accepted an invitation by The Senior Council for Honiton to discuss pension reform.

He got an early taste of what was to come when council chairman Vic Bowsher told him "you are a very brave man" during the introduction.

VACANT POSITION: Job club volunteer Liz Lynn, summer job seeker Jack Keenan and Mr Timms check out what is available

Shadow minister impressed with work of local job club

By Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

SHADOW Minister for Employment, Stephen Timms MP, spoke enthusiastically about Axminster Alternative Job Club when he visited the town.

Mr Timms visited on Thursday, July 19th, and spoke to job club volunteers and job seekers.

He spent about an hour at the job club and told Pulman's View: "I'm impressed and encouraged."

"The people I spoke to found the job club clearly helpful."

"I'm taking away a positive impression."

Learning adviser Jo Hawkins works for LymeNet and delivers National Careers Service support each week at the alternative job club.

She raised a number of subjects with Mr Timms and told Pulman's View: "We discussed how not all people have access or the skills to use IT and that they are at risk of becoming digitally excluded."

"Stephen has a particular interest in IT and was appointed Minister for Digital Britain in 2009, with the responsibility for co-ordinating the government's aim to expand broadband access across the UK."

"He was very approachable and it was great to see him talking to the various people who attend the job club."

"I can see the difference that the job club is making to people's lives in the local community and it is great that Stephen came to see the work in person."

Axminster Alternative Job Club was set up by Axminster Churches Together and opened in May 2010.

It is open to anyone and describes itself as "a free voluntary service for people who are searching for employment in the area".

In addition to basic job searches, the club also offers practical help with CV writing, interview techniques and so on.

Axminster Alternative Job Club is staffed by volunteers and does not receive government funding, but works closely with government agencies like Job Centre Plus on an independent basis.

Axminster Alternative Job Club is open each Thursday from 9.30am-12.30pm in the Methodist Hall, Lyme Road.

More information about the club is available online at www.axminster.job.club.com or by phoning 01297 348 63.

People going down 'like a sniper in church tower'

He said: "I think the last piece in the newspaper drew people's attention to it."

"There were no falls really for nine months after it appeared and then only the odd one."

"But now people are going down like there is a sniper up the church tower."

"We have bought a new first aid kit."

If nothing else, he hopes more publicity will remind pedestrians about the uneven pavement and reduce the number of incidents.

According to Mr Roberts, two of the last four casualties have been taken to hospital.

The one who fell on July 13th was assisted by Mr Roberts and colleagues on the pavement but didn't require medical assistance.

A spokesperson for Devon County Council said: "We have reviewed the layout of the pavement and a scheme has been identified to remove some of the gradients."

"We are investigating whether we are able to take this scheme forward as part of the 2012/13 Local Transport Plan programme."

But Mr Roberts was not convinced, saying: "That's exactly what they said two years ago."

Rotary collect for flood victims

THE Rotary Club of Axminster members will be out on Thursday (July 26th) to collect for the joint flood relief fund set up by Axminster Town Council and East Devon District Council.

Club member John Hewson said: "We will be collecting outside Tesco and in the town."

Dozens of Axminster properties were affected by the recent floods with some residents having to find alternative accommodation because the water damage was so bad.

East Devon District Council has committed to match fund donations up to £10,000.

Anyone affected by the recent flooding can obtain an application form and more information by e-mailing axminster flood@eastdevon.gov.uk, phoning 01395 517 430 or writing to: Finance (Flood Fund), EDDC, Knowle, Sidmouth, EX10 8HL.

Anyone wishing to make donation to the fund can do so by using the following details: Lloyds TSB, sort code 30-93-14, account number 01569220.

Students impress MP

MP Neil Parish returned to Axminster less than a week after his previous visit.

Mr Parish visited the town on Saturday, July 14th to inspect flood damage, and he returned the following Thursday for a visit to Axe Valley Community College.

College bosses and students wanted to showcase developments in areas such as literacy, extra curricular activities and ongoing refurbishment.

Mr Parish said: "I was delighted to meet with the students of the college.

"I was impressed by how they engaged with me and with their confidence.

"When going round the college I was impressed with the quality of the teaching and general motivation of the students."

Headteacher Martin Smith was pleased with the visit and said: "It was a pleasure to host a visit from Mr Parish.

"He was genuinely interested in the views of our students and staff and gave us plenty of positive feedback."

saying: "So I can make a collection of badges."

Thanks for helmet funds, say parents

TWO Axminster parents have thanked fundraisers who helped them buy a corrective helmet for their daughter.

Isabelle Parker, who is 16 months old, is the daughter of Mike and Mel Parker.

They noticed quite early that "something didn't seem quite right" with the shape of her head.

Her twin sister Jasmine was fine, but Isabelle was diagnosed with plagiocephaly – a condition which makes the back or side of a baby's head appear flattened.

Mike and Mel tried various techniques to stop their daughter from sleeping on the affected side of her head in the cot, but without success.

Mel said that the NHS would only treat cases that involve deformation of the face, so the couple went for a free consultation with a specialist at The London Orthotic Consultancy.

Mel said: "The only way to rectify it would be a special helmet that moulds the head into shape."

The only problem was that the helmet would come at a price – £1,995 to be precise.

■ THANK YOU: Mike, Mel, Isabelle (helmet in her lap), Christopher and Jasmine are so grateful to every who who organised and supported the sponsored walk Mike explained what happened next by saying: "Our boy, Christopher, goes to Rainbow Under 5s Playgroup and it was mentioned there.

"The next thing we knew, they offered to do a sponsored walk."

The walk took place in November last year, from Seaton to Beer and back.

Isabelle was fitted with the helmet shortly afterwards and wore it for 23 hours a day for half a year.

The helmet did the trick and Mike said: "We expected lots of tears, but we were surprised how well she got on with it.

"We want to thank the playgroup for the help and support, and everybody else who sponsored the walk."

Society's summer exhibition kicks off two weeks late

■ AXMINSTER Art Society's Summer Exhibition and Sale kicked off on Saturday, July 7th – two weeks later than planned. The event is usually staged at Axe Vale Festival, which was cancelled this year because of a waterlogged showground. Society members had a back-up plan, however, and moved the exhibition to the top floor of Trinity House's Home-in-Style department.

Judging took place the day before the opening and The President's Award was won by Angela Drake's Tumbling Pears entry.

Mums pocket London 2012 Olympic tickets doing their weekly shopping

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

TWO Axminster mums have scooped Olympic tickets just by doing their weekly shop.

Unbeknown to Millie Gigg and Nicola Wills, a routine trip to the Axminster branch of Tesco automatically entered them into a prize draw to win the tickets when they purchased a P&G product.

Since February 2012 P&G, a proud sponsor of The Olympic Games, has been running a competition for shoppers.

Simply by purchasing one of P&G's participating brands and swiping their Tesco Clubcard, customers have been automatically entered into a competition to win much coveted tickets to The London 2012 Olympic Games.

P&G is giving 90 per cent of its corporate ticket allowance to UK families.

Nathan Homer, P&G Olympic project leader comments: "It's been a delightful week for P&G delivering hundreds of Olympic Games tickets to mums like Millie and Nicola.

"We know the hard work mums put into running a family and the sentiment behind the sponsorship is to thank them for everything they do.

"We hope they all have a fantastic time at London 2012."

More local people are still in with a chance of joining Millie and Nicola and their families at The Olympic Games.

Right up until August 8th, more tickets can be won through a text-to-win entry mechanic that could see shoppers become the lucky winners of VIP tickets to the opening or closing ceremony –

School news

A CYCLING team from Axe Valley Community College in Axminster has thanked sponsors and presented a cheque to a worthy cause.

As previously reported, the team completed the gruelling 104-kilometre Dartmoor Classic Cyclo sportive 2012 on Sunday, June 24th.

Apart from the physical challenge, team members worked with The Rotary Club of Axminster on practical matters associated with the event, like fundraising.

Westbank Young Carers (WYC), which provides a range of services for young carers, has received a cheque of £350.

A previous report said the amount was in the region of £650, but the college has since clarified that that was the total amount raised from the challenge.

A sum of £300 went back into the cycle challenge pot to pay for three new bikes. Sponsors Axminster Carpets, Selec Systems, Seward's Coaches and Colebrooke Guest House of Beer were invited to the college recently and were presented with a team top each as a thank you for their support.

One fundraising element came in the shape of a competition to which members of the public were invited to guess the time it would take the team to complete the challenge.

The Rotary Club of Axminster has announced that local lady Wendy Townshend claimed the prize of £50.

She predicted it would take eight hours and 55 minutes, which was very close to the eight hours 53 minutes and eight seconds required.

Society seeks young artists

AXMINSTER Arts is seeking applications for its annual sponsorship scheme for young artists.

Each year the organisation uses profits from the Axminster Arts Café to sponsor students who have attended local schools and who then go on to higher education to study one of the arts – such as music, drama, film, dance or visual arts.

Axminster Arts committee secretary Jenny Fells said: "The award is to be used to purchase some of the necessary materials/equipment for their chosen course and the recipients will also be given the opportunity to hold a joint exhibition with their fellow award winners at the arts café in April 2014.

"Readers who have just completed their studies in a local sixth form and who are due to go onto higher education to study one of the arts in the autumn, are welcome to apply for this year's Young Persons' Sponsorship Award."

Application forms are available from the arts café or by emailing jennyfells@btinternet.com.

The closing date for application is Saturday, August 25th this year.

■ READY TO ORDER: Pupils were kept busy taking orders for an afternoon when Axminster Primary School laid on a cream tea for PTFA members, governors and members of the public who have helped out there during the past academic year. The event was held in the main hall on Wednesday, July 11th

News briefs

DEDICATED fundraisers Bev Ledger and Kim Abbott are to run a stall at Axmouth Flower Show this Saturday in memory of an Axmouth teenager who died last year.

Bev and Kim decided to raise money for Littlebridge House in Barnstaple, part of Children's Hospice South West, after close friends Chris and Nicky Wakely lost their son Connor, aged just 17, on New Year's Eve.

Despite being ill for some time, Connor always loved visiting the village show and the fundraising duo decided it was the perfect opportunity to remember him and give something back to the children's charity.

The pair will be running a special raffle as well as a play your cards right game and hope that many will come along to support them as well as the rest of the show.

SEATON and Area Seniors' Council has issued an open invitation for its meeting tomorrow (Wednesday, starting at 2pm, in the side hall of the Methodist Church in Scalwell Lane, Seaton.

Council member Joyce West said: "The speaker will be Perry French, the information officer for The Stroke Association. This should be a most informative and interesting topic for many of us.

The AGM will follow.

For further information telephone 01297 21788.

Driven by professionalism and passion

By Laura Goldsbury Noy

SEATON'S Voice have been awarded the highest accolade for Community Hall Management by achieving three awards.

Martin Rich, from the Community Council of Devon, presented the award at a celebration evening when the group of dedicated volunteers achieved levels 1, 2 and 3 of the Hallmark award.

The team, who manage The Gateway at Seaton Town Hall, gained all three certificates in one swoop, which is a first for those based in Devon.

In usual circumstances, communities will move up the awards one by one, but Seaton's Voice team felt confident that they could achieve all three.

The national award is to mark excellence in management and confirms that all procedures and paperwork are correctly in place and practised.

Two assessors spent a day looking through paperwork and talking to Voice members and their final comments praised the professionalism and passion of the team.

Seaton's Voice is a Community Interest Company which took over the running of their Town Hall, turning it into a successful community hub within 18 months.

East Devon District Council had been suffering annual losses to the tune of £30,000 before the partnership was started in January 2011.

Director of Seaton's Voice, Carol Manley commented after being presented with the certificates: "The greatest thing about this award was the comments about passion and professionalism of all involved.

Amazing community

"They weren't just talking about the team, they were talking about all our volunteers and groups who are involved in this amazing community drive to not only save our Town Hall but to make it the best it can be across the East Devon Area.

"Seaton has been "The Big Society" in action, where everyone has come together to do something. We are very proud to accept the award and look forward to an amazing and exciting future as we create a destination venue for entertainment and performing arts, which is to be a truly vibrant

New President for Rotary

THE Rotary Club of Seaton celebrated when they held their annual presidential handover evening and meal.

Gathering at the White Hart Inn, Colyford, the group enjoyed their annual sit down meal and reflected on the past year's achievements with a special presentation before the official handover took place.

For retiring President Doug Smith it was the second time he has passed on the duty to another member of the club and he was pleased to hand over the reins to new President Dr Mick Askew, who is now also in his second term as President.

Dr Askew said: "I am very much looking forward to taking on the role of President again for the Rotary Club where we hope we can continue increasing our involvement with the local community.

"We have shown great support for school leavers in the local area who hope to volunteer overseas doing charity work and helping those in need and this is definitely something we would like to continue doing.

"Alongside a lot of our local work, we of course also hope to continue our overseas work, linking with our sister club - Illiwarra Sunrise in Australia - to carry on our polio plus work, and inoculation programmes abroad."

The Rotary Club of Seaton welcome new members and thank the public for their ongoing support of their work and fundraising.

Majorette bag-packers raise £494 for new uniforms

■ SEATON Majorettes turned out in force at the town's Tesco Store for a day of fundraising as they offered customers help packing and carrying their shopping. Raising money for their new outfits, which are to be revealed at Seaton's carnival procession in September, members of all ages enjoyed giving the community a helping hand with their shopping.

Majorettes leader June Millman said: "We were pleased to have raised £494 bag packing at Tesco on Saturday. "Our grateful thanks go to Tesco for the opportunity and to all the customers who put money in our collection buckets."

Garden society marks 20 years

■ HAPPY ANNIVERSARY: Committee members of Colyton Garden Society at their anniversary lunch at Pecorama in Beer

MEMBERS of Colyton Garden Society gathered for a lunch at Pecorama in Beer to celebrate their 20th anniversary.

The group enjoyed lunch under a marquee in the attraction's gardens and cut a special anniversary cake.

President Malcolm Harmer spoke of how the society was put together following an impromptu meeting in 1992 to see if it was viable to set up a gardening group in Colyton. A quick collection made enough for the rent of the hall for that day and half the rent for the next meeting, when local up-and-coming horticulturalist, Roger Platts, spoke to the group before going on to win several accolades at Chelsea Flower Show during a successful career.

Mr Harmer said there were two vital elements for the society's continuing success – its healthy membership and its active and dedicated committee. He said the society acted as a social gathering and learning experience to many.

"May we all look forward to another 10 years and another celebration in 2022," he added.

Surgery for local flood victims

A MULTI-AGENCY flood surgery will be held in Axminster on Thursday, hosted by Devon County Council, the Environment Agency and East Devon

District Council (writes Anders Larsson),

The surgery is primarily aimed for residents and local businesses who were affected by the recent flooding or have ongoing concerns.

Those planning to attend are encouraged to bring along any photographs, video clips or notes relevant to their area.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, DCC Cabinet member for Highways and Transportation, said: "This has been a difficult time for people affected by the recent bad weather. "However, I was pleased to see how communities pulled together to help them get through some of the worst flooding we've seen in decades.

"It's important for us now to re-visit some of those areas and talk to residents about how they coped, how the emergency response teams worked together, to hear about their experiences and to see if there is anything further we can do to improve on how we manage these situations."

Swift response

County councillor for Axminster Andrew Moulding said; "The surgeries will be an excellent opportunity for concerned residents to discuss the matters relating to recent flooding.

"These may be those who have been affected by floods or those who fear potential future flooding."

Residents in Axminster were pleased with the swift response from all agencies during the recent floods and appreciated visits to their affected homes by their Local MP, members of the Environment Agency, Town, District and County Councillors and Officers.

By attending the surgeries, Axminster residents can further discuss the issues and hear about future plans to ensure that the risk of flooding in the future can be overcome."

The Axminster surgery will run from 12 noon-7pm in Axminster Guildhall on Thursday, July 26th.

TODDLERS from the Rainbow Unders 5s' Playgroup in Axminster cranked up the Olympic fever a degree or two when taking to a running track with own-made torches.

The sponsored torch run was supposed to have been held over five daysearly in July lowing, but bad weather forced group leaders to cancel the first three days.

The children used Axminster Primary School's new running track and had invited Ryan Braunton-Turner, from Wilmington, who was an official torch bearer when the London 2012 Olympic Torch Relay passed through Minehead.

Ryan (pictured above with the children) works at Flamingo Pool in Axmisnter and officially opened the running track only a week or so before the playgroup's sponsored run.

■ COLYTON resident Judy Green hosted a cream tea at her home on Saturday. Mrs Green and helpers set up tables in the garden of The Grove for visitors to enjoy cream teas and cake in the sunshine. The event also included a raffle with a total of £398 raised for the Bridge of Hope children's ministry charity, which supports orphaned and abandoned children in Uganda. The money will go towards a clean waterhole which costs a total of £1,000.

THE Lions Club of Seaton announced winners of their annual Peace Poster Competition for Year 6 pupils last week.

The international competition attracted 350,000 entries from across 75 countries.

Winner Sam will now compete in the South West district competition and, if successful, will take part in the British Isles and Ireland contest and then the international final.

Other schools taking part in the Seaton Lions' competition included Seaton and Beer primary schools.

History society celebrates jubilee

■ COLYTON Parish History Society marked the Queen's Diamond Jubilee at their recent coffee morning. The event was held in Colyton Town Hall, where the society has set up displays of photos and press cuttings of royal celebrations in Colyton, up to the recent jubilee celebrations. There was also a display of photos of the Queen and royal family featured in the national press during the special weekend in June.

News from the Caterpillars

■ COLYTON Caterpillars Pre-School were visited by Calabash on the Move recently. This unique resource offers an introduction to culture and diversity for young children. A special tent, decorated with backcloths representing different cultures, was set up in the Caterpillars' playground and the children enjoyed stories, puppet games, multicultural toys and crafts. Pictured right, on the same day the Caterpillars held a cake sale, selling treats to parents and visitors, all in aid of Cancer Research UK.

■ THE children at Colyton Caterpillars were treated to a special visit from a raccoon on Friday. Rocky the raccoon visited the children who were keen to get an up-close look at the animal, which is rarely seen in this country. The Caterpillars also had their faces painted as raccoons for the visit.

SEATON & DISTRICT ART SOCIETY

SEATON ART 40 YEARS ON

S EATON & District Art Society is proud to announce its 40th Annual Art Exhibition. Seaton Town Hall doors will be open to the public from 10.00am to 5.30pm from Saturday 4th to Thursday 9th August. It promises to be a special exhibition as the Society's 40th anniversary coincides with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the Olympics. With all these events in mind the Society is including a special show entitled "Reflections" within the main Exhibition. Members have been working on 10" x 10" canvases to produce personal interpretations on the theme - and all the "Reflections" paintings will be for sale at £40 or less.

With several new members, the Society's main exhibition will include a wide range of art - paintings in all mediums including collage and textile, alongside ceramics, glass and sculpture.

Over the past twelve months the Society has continued its exciting monthly demonstrations by professional artists. Members and visitors have appreciated the high standard and variety of these professionals and seen how to create Texture in Watercolour, use Experimental Approaches to Paper Batik or capture Wildlife in Acrylic and learnt about Islamic Influence on Western Art, to name but a few.

In June the members enjoyed a hands-on session led by Marie Blake on A Living Line in Colour. Everyone sat round a long table and under the tutor's guidance began drawing with their eyes closed. The results were astonishing.

Christine Russell, a well known artist and speaker, brought her skills into the hall and showed members how to use interactive acrylics. Her picture of the bottles is an example of texture, light and tone. During his annual assessment of members' work in February Alan Cotton, D.Litt FRSA, President of the Society, gave encouraging and perceptive advice and was specially thrilled by one of the member's painting of a lady with a rose in her hair.

As well as the monthly demonstrations, the Society holds a weekly Monday Club at the Methodist Church Hall in Seaton. There is no formal tuition at these more sociable gatherings when members paint together. There is a portrait model, a still life and a regular "challenge". Expertise is shared and the group appraise their work at the end of the session. The Society also runs day workshops and in the Spring had four weekly mornings of oil painting workshops with Mike Beach.

The Annual membership currently remains at £15.00 and junior membership is £7.00, if the applicant is in fulltime education. The venue for the monthly demonstration will change after the Exhibition and these will now take place at the Seaton Town Hall where the Society will have the benefit of a sophisticated audio/visual system allowing members to watch the artist working and see the results on a large screen. On September 3rd Paignton artist David Webb will demonstrate how to paint Animals in Watercolour. Visitors and new members are always welcome. The Monday Club is to continue holding its sessions at the Methodist Hall. More details can be found on the Society's website at: www.seatonartsociety.co.uk

The Society is grateful to Exmouth artist Ray Balkwill who will open the Art Exhibition and will award the President's Cup for the best picture in the show as well as the Devon Framers Cup for a landscape painting. Radio 4 Gardeners' Question Time broadcaster Anne Swithinbank will present the Maggie Lodge Rose Bowl for flower painting. Harcombe sculptor and painter Emma MacFadyen will judge the Barbara Hollingsworth Award for a portrait in any medium as well as The Bob Hurndell Memorial Cup for a wildlife picture. In addition, the visiting public can judge who should win the Mitre Box Cup by voting for the work of art they like best in the Show.

The cost of admission to the Exhibition is 50p and includes a catalogue giving free return admission for the rest of the Show. An original painting and an original print can be won in the raffle, there are many prizes in a tombola and there is no admission fee for children, who can take part in a special competition.

Club visits Malmesbury Wartime memories at Phoenix club meeting

YARTY GARDENING CLUB
ON JUNE 21st members and friends of the Yarty Gardening Club had their annual summer outing.

The weather had been extremely wet and windy, but on a damp and dismal morning we set off in anticipation of a good day. We were not disappointed.

The Abbey House Gardens at Malmesbury were splendid.

The herbaceous borders and the huge collection of roses were a sight to behold.

The weather was good enough to be able to walk down to the river and enjoy the plantings of rhododendrons and other interesting shrubs and plants in that area.

We had plenty of time to explore Malmesbury town and the spectacular abbey with its fine decoration and very interesting historical records.

The weather, having been reasonable while at Malmesbury, took a turn for the worse and the driver had to endure very heavy rain and spray on the return journey.

There is no Yarty Gardening Club meeting in August but there is Buckland St Mary Flower Show on Sunday August 19th.

Schedules are available from Buckland St Mary's

Church porch or from Anne Kennard on 01460 234650.

All those living within eight miles of Buckland St

Mary, please try to enter in as many classes as possible, as the success of the show depends on the entries.

SIDBURY & SIDFORD ROYAL BRITISH LEGION BRANCH

SIDBURY and Sidford Royal British Legion members enjoyed a day out at the Eden Project last Monday.

The trip brought to the group's attention the impact of climate on the environment, plants and the way of life experienced in many parts of the world.

An open-air area of sustainable British plants, wildflowers and vegetables was also much admired.

The next outing is to take place on October 15th and 16th to the Imperial War Museum, with overnight accommodation at the 'Union Jack Club' and optional visits to the stage production of 'War Horse' at the New London Theatre, a visit to the Houses of Parliament and the Churchill War Rooms.

For more information contact the secretary, Mrs Valerie Hull, on 01395 512261 for details.

PHOENIX LADIES

OUR meeting this month, held at the United Reform Church Hall, was on a very welcome sunny day!

We commiserated a while with those affected by the floods then began our meeting with apologies of absence.

We discussed our charity for next year but no firm commitment was made, other than it would definitely be a local charity.

We then went on to discuss our outings later this year to Bicton, Cardiff (for some retail therapy!) and our Christmas dinner in Sidmouth at the Belmont Hotel on December 10th.

If you wish to go to any of these events, please be aware that lists will be going around soon.

We have a coffee morning on August 2nd at the Minster Church Rooms from 10am till 12noon in aid of charity, and so we designated the various stalls and refreshments to volunteers.

Lesley Frankau then read us a charming letter from Aita Kumari, the young girl in Nepal whose education we are sponsoring.

It was very well written with very good handwriting for an 11-year-old, so our money is well invested.

Ida Shephard has now written a letter in return telling Aita all about Phoenix Ladies and Axminster.

Our speaker this month was Patricia

Lowther speaking about 'When War Broke Out'. Patricia came from Newcastle and gave us a child's eye view of the onset of World War II.

People often associate evacuees with Londoners but as there was a large coal mining industry in and around Newcastle ergo there followed heavy manufacturing industry. So it was necessary to evacuate children from Newcastle.

When Patricia's father asked her if she would like to go and live in the 'country' she had visions of herself sitting under a tree sketching the view all day!

So she was not upset but rather thought it would be a grand adventure!

The children were not scared at all by the barrage balloon and guns put up in the park. Her father owned a small haulage company and Patricia can remember him being upset when his lorries were confiscated by the government for their use but stayed in the compound for the whole war.

He consequently became a fireman. Patricia was then dispatched along with lots of other children (with labels!) to Morpeth.

All were given postcards to send to their parents to tell them where they now lived.

Patricia was particularly fascinated in the home she was allocated by the gas lights which she had never seen before!

She remembers swimming in the river in summer and boys flooding the playground so that the water would freeze overnight and children could skate! All happy memories!

When she passed her scholarship at 11 she was sent to Keswick High School, where the girls of Roedean had been sent.

She remembers the smell of the mountains and of a pencil factory! Material was very hard to come by but the utility brand was a fairly good quality.

The Lady magazine at the time used to advertise second hand clothing and if you knew somebody who worked in a parachute factory you were home and dry!

Overall the wartime years taught Patricia to be independent as it did with most other children

Lesley thanked Patricia, who now lives in Seaton, and told her that she was welcome to become a members anytime.

Before everyone left we presented Lois Rance with a large bouquet and birthday card to celebrate her 90th birthday and we sang Happy Birthday to her.

There will be no meeting in August at the hall but there is the coffee morning on August 2nd and the outing to Bicton is on the 11th.

We hope to see as many of you as possible at the coffee morning.

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

AWLISCOMBE WI

FOR the July meeting, members entertained the committee with a Jubilee theme.

The village hall was decorated with bunting, balloons and lovely flower arrangements. Everyone was offered a glass of Pimm's on their arrival and a three course meal was set for the committee.

Jill Jackson and Pat Watson acted as president and secretary reading the correspondence including a report from Mary Mitcham of Clyst Hydon who was our delegate at the annual meeting in London.

Julie Spilles introduced our speaker, a farmer's daughter now residing in Launceston.

Val Bugden-Cawsey gave a hilarious and most entertaining talk on her 36 years as a professional caterer working for a time at the Royal residence of Princess Anne. Val judged the member with the most appealing Royal outfit.

The winner of Joyce Edward's competition for an Edible necklace was won by Mary Martil, with Marjorie Madge second.

Flower of the month - Chrissie Jackson with a lovely red rose.

A huge raffle took place and many birthday cards were given out. Many thanks must go to Julie Spilles and her committee for organising this wonderful evening.

MUSBURY & WHITFORD WI

THE Musbury & Whitford WI July meeting was held in Whitford Village Hall on Tuesday, July 10th and chaired by our new president Marjorie Beardsly, who did a stalwart job, in spite of heckling.

She passed the heckle test with flying colours, apologies were taken; quite a lot unfortunately due to illness and holidays. Birthday posies were given.

Margaret Thomas, who has resigned from the committee after many years, especially as treasurer and provided us with hundreds of posh biscuits, was thanked and presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers.

Speaker Alexis Swain's subject was My Life with Ducks. She is an eloquent speaker and the subject was hilarious and caused much merriment. Alexis was thanked by Marnie.

After refreshments we got on with the business. Final arrangements were made for the outing to Yellingham Farm next week.

Commiserations were given to the Axe Vale team for the cancellation of the show.

A coffee morning and planning lunch (free!) will be held in Musbury Village Hall's committee room, on Tuesday, August 21st, from 10am onwards.

Please bring your ideas for next year's programme, there will also be bring and buy stall.

The meeting closed at 9:30pm. Next Meeting is on Tuesday, September 11th from 7.30pm at Whitford Village Hall.

The subject is A History of Hats. As usual, all are welcome.

COLYFORD WI

COLYFORD WI celebrated its 37th birthday in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday, July 4th.

The party provided delicious sandwiches, cream teas, a birthday cake and was served to members and our guests from the surrounding WIs of Axminster, Beer, Colyton, Whitford & Musbury, and Seaton. We were delighted that more than 50 people attended the celebration.

Invitations were also extended to former members and it was with much pleasure that that we were able to congratulate Mable Stocks during the meeting on the occasion of her 100th birthday.

Our afternoon was also able to enjoy entertainment provided by Barbara Evis, Margaret Nicholson, Liz Thomas, Ruth Higgs, Margaret Lee and Jean Cotchin.

Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, September 5th 2012 at Colyford Memorial Hall from 2:30pm.

SMEATHARPE WI

THE guest speaker at the July meeting was Yvonne Thomson from Project Linus UK, a charitable organisation which aims to bring comfort to sick, bereaved and traumatised children by providing them with a homemade patchwork quilt.

She explained how she has built up a network of quilters who provide her with quilts to give to local hospitals, hospices and safe houses.

Yvonne judged the competition of the week, applique squares which will be made into a quilt for the Linus project.

All were of an extremely high standard. The winner was Jennie Knapp, second Elizabeth Badman and third Caroline Nix.

June was a busy month for raising money for charity including the Beech Farm Open Day and cream teas at Pear Tree Cottage.

Elizabeth, Kate, Moira and Sue were given a special mention for raising £262.40 for St Margaret's Hospice by doing a charity walk.

The flower of the month was a stunning water lily, from Geraldine Field.

Due to a clash with the Honiton Show, the August meeting will held on the second Thursday of the month the 9th and will include a talk on Birds of Prey.

All ladies are welcome to come and join the lively group.

Grateful for plentiful flood help

■ I FELT that I must let everyone know of the help and kindness I received during that dreadful Saturday of freak storms and flooding.

Having had our property flooded several years ago and in spite of the flood prevention scheme that was set up following that, I was understandably stressed with the volume of water rushing down the road, seeping into our property.

I received 10 calls of help and assurance from neighbors, family and friends but the most help came from our local police when I dialed 999.

Within 20 minutes Chris, the policeman came and re-assured me there was no danger at that point in time but he was concerned for my stressful state of mind.

He and a lady colleague came again after two hours when things were subsiding a little and gave me more help and re-assurance.

Before night-fall Chris came again to ensure that I could settle in for the night. What a wonderful help they all were as I am sure they were more people worse off than myself.

Thank you all.

Recent flooding: call to make concerns known

■ BEING in Ireland at the time we heard about the floods in Axminster on Sky news and we have had some photos of the event emailed to us by friends.

Not quite as bad as the flood in the town on New Years Eve 2000 or the earlier one which I understand flooded properties at Willhayes and elsewhere but very serious all the same.

The question now is how would one of these events be in the future if the Cloakham Lawn development gets built, bearing in mind the run off of surface water from 400 rooftops, driveways access roads.

As the whole sight drains into the river Axe I believe we could easily be looking at a Boscastle type event.

I know he plan is supposed to include holding lagoons but these are of little use if we get a severe weather event when the lagoons are already full.

Over 90 per cent of those making written representations at the time of the planning application did not want the development at Cloakham lawn.

The town council also objected to it as did the Ward member and the adjacent ward member.

As a property owner in the town I share the concerns of so may residents that development of Cloakham Lawn could result in the devastation of their properties by flood water.

In particular I have concerns over the risk to Willhayes Park, Cricketers, Lower Castle Hill, Vale Lane, Stoney Bridges, the road to Cloakham and Shand Park. I also believe that business close to the bottom of the valley such as Tesco and the Axminster Carpet Factory could be vulnerable.

I now strongly urge all those who have genuine concerns over the issue to make those concerns known to the appropriate authorities.

Please put kids first, says parent

■ PLEASE start putting our children's education first!

As a parent of children at All Saints school I feel I have to write this letter.

Articles have appeared in both the national and local press, most of which are based on rumours, gossip and speculation.

These 'stories' serve no purpose other than to give our school a bad name.

As recently reported Devon County Council have confirmed that Mrs Hollidge was suspended by the Governors after taking advice from the LEA.

Numerous people would have been involved in that process, not just one person as inferred by a recent story. To suggest that Mrs Tucker, Chair of Governors, acted for personal reasons is grossly unfair as she is not able to defend herself.

Due to the professionalism of the governors and staff involved not leaking information, the exact reasons remain confidential.

It was also reported that Mrs Hollidge is thankfully now no longer on sick leave, so hopefully this means that the matter can be dealt with in the quickest possible way so as to avoid anymore unpleasantness.

I would also like to point out that the so called 'concerned parents' have been told on numerous occasions that they cannot be given any more information, but they still insist on continuing to demand answers.

Instead of letting things take their course they insist on wasting the acting head, the governors and the teachers time on having to manage all this bad press, which means that they are not able to concentrate whole heartedly on what is really important...our children's education.

If some parents are unhappy to wait for the official outcome of any investigation they should remember that there are other schools around and they have the freedom to choose an alternative.

As parents our priority should always be our children, please remember that.

THE SEAFOOD PLATTER

A sea change for Beer Restaurant

THE Barrel O' Beer is well on the way to an exciting re-launch as it gets ready to change its name this week.

The new name- 'The Seafood Platter' aims not only picks out the award winning gastro pub's signature dish but also reinstates the premises as a top seafood and local cuisine venue.

After entering the well-known Taste of the West awards last year, the traditional pub came away with a silver award highlighting their interest in the best local produce available. Now they hope that they can do even better in the years to come, singling themselves out as a true location for 'foodies' everywhere.

Customers are able to see where their food comes from, with an extensive menu and supplier list on show, highlighting a list of suppliers from Seaton and the Lyme Bay to Luscombe Organic Produce and Christopher Piper wines based near Ottery St Mary.

The family run business has recently been redecorated and has developed internally into a fresh yet traditional look and now the Hunt family hope that their new name will give them that extra boost for years to come.

Supporting sustainability for both the environment and the local food market, a major philosophy of the restaurant is supporting the 'sustainable fish fight,' serving only fresh fish from the Lyme Bay area, as well as only using free range, traditionally reared meats from local suppliers.

The kitchen team also show a major commitment to making food freshly on the premises, with homemade deserts and daily baked bread, whilst all other food is sourced from as close to Beer as possible.

The Hunt Family have been running the pub for 22 years, first arriving at the premises in 1990. They hope that they can continue to provide a real family feel and traditional service to their customers whilst really excelling in the high quality food market.

Manager, Luke Hunt said: "We are all very excited about the name change, which we hope will really put us on the map as a real gastro pub, rather than your average local pub.

"We aim to provide a friendly and professional service, with only the highest standards of food, usually all locally sourced produce and freshly made dishes created by our award winning chefs.

"We are looking forward to what the future will bring and cannot wait to continue improving and embracing our high food standards as well as our new name- 'The Seafood Platter.'"

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE Church of England has voted to postpone a historic decision on appointing the first women bishops. The General Synod backed delaying a final approval debate, until a further Synod in November, to allow more consideration of a controversial last-minute amendment made by the Church of England bishops. The move was prompted by protests from senior female clergy who said the amendment would have enshrined discrimination against women in the law.

Christians will be able to wear crosses to work under changes to the law promised last week by David Cameron. At PMQs he was asked about the case of Nadia Eweida who has appealed to the European Court of Human Rights after being barred by British Airways from wearing a crucifix at Heathrow Airport.

The Pope has knighted Northern Ireland peace process founder John Hume. The Nobel Laureate and former SDLP leader whose dialogue with Sinn Féin paved the way for the end of violence and the signing of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement, was made a Knight of St Gregory for his peace work.

Olympic athletes will have access to free copies of the Bible and Scriptures, thanks to an initiative by Bible Society.

For the first time this year, the Diocese of Exeter is producing a full-colour, glossy, 2013 Diocesan Calendar/Annual Report.

Back to East Devon, and local events -

On Thursday 26 July lunchtime music at Axminster Church will be a piano recital by Nicholas Brown & the following Thursday, 2nd August the music is by the Wealden Wind Quintet.

Saturday 28th July brings a Church Market at Branscombe Village Hall from 10am.

Sunday 29th July at 10.45am at Colyton Church has a further piano recital by Nicholas Brown.

From the end of July (31st) Tuesdays at St Paul's Honiton will offer a host of music events starting at 1pm with Trevor Bolshaw at the organ.

Church Holiday activities - the Kings' Club 28-31 August at the Reece Strawbridge Youth Centre Colyton, is open for bookings - tel 01297 552141.

MIKE Parker grew up in Seaton but moved to Axminster for the first time in his early 20s.

He set up his own business, Parker's Valeting Service, almost four years ago and he has a keen interest in motorcycles.

He is married to Mel and they have three children - Isabelle, Christopher and Jasmine - and live in Millway Rise.

● HOW long have you lived in Axminster and how did you end up here?

I am originally from Seaton. When I moved out of home at 21 years old I moved to Axminster. I moved back to Seaton for about a year and then back to Axminster for work and friend reasons.

I used to work for Taylor's Motorcycles in Crewkerne, who have closed now.

● WHAT do you like about Axminster?

Coming from Seaton I notice a lot of good things about Axminster, most to do with facilities for children. Swimming pool, sports centre, train station and the secondary school are all pluses over Seaton to me. Although I don't use them I know that as my kids grow up they will be able to. And that as they get older I won't have to drive them to Exeter shopping.

Also, Axminster is in the middle of a lot of large towns, which is good for work.

● ARE there any things you'd like to change or improve in Axminster?

I think a solid footpath/cycle path along the river would be good. There is no way you can walk along the river with a pushchair, especially a double one. We have such a nice river that you can only access if you walk. Other towns have done it. We recently went to Braunton in north Devon who have a solid path along some of the river and it was nice for the kids to feed the ducks.

Also it really needs a north/south bypass. Massive lorries with small footpaths is dangerous. Our twins' double buggy doesn't fit on some footpaths and can be a bit hair-raising.

They are going to make the town bigger by building more houses. This is not a bad thing but they need to make everything else bigger like the medical practice and primary school.

● HOW long have you been running your own business?

I started Parker's Valeting Service in October 2008. It's a fully mobile service so I go to the customer. I have a water tank and generator on board the van so can work if there is no water supply or electric point.

● WHAT advice would you give to someone on how to set up their own business?

Don't give up. Starting out was really hard, especially with so much to buy and such a small budget. And always provide a good quality service.

● WHAT are your personal interests or hobbies?

Motorcycles, although I don't get to ride my bike much with three young children and running my own business. Judo - I go to Seaton Judo Club at Seaton Martial Arts Centre. Photography - I belong to Axminster Photography Group. And a little bit of air rifle shooting, again not so much now due to lack of time.

● WHICH is your favourite holiday destination, and why?

Cornwall. With the exception of this year we go every year. Lizard Point is great and also Newquay. There's so much to do down there for adults and children.

● WHAT is your perfect meal?

Chinese, or steak with prawn cocktail to start. Not very imaginative but... yum!

● IF you could invite anyone in the world for a slap-up meal for four who would you choose, and why?

Casey Stoner, Jorge Lorenzo, Dani Pedrosa, Cal Crutchlow. They are top MotoGP riders and I love the MotoGP. To have a chat with them would be really interesting although I expect their choice of meal would differ quite a bit from mine.

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

Depends on the amount. If it was a large amount I'd buy a house, otherwise a newer, bigger car.

TONY JACKSON

More hopeful for butterflies

ALTHOUGH I have been despondent about the prospects for butterflies this summer, news from Butterfly Conservation, Dorset branch, is more hopeful. On Sunday, July 15 a guided walk in Farnham Woods, North Dorset recorded silver-washed fritillaries, large skippers, commas, ringlets, abundant meadow browns and a white admiral. Good news, too, where the Weymouth Relief Road is concerned, for here, instead of covering the slopes of the embankments with imported topsoil, they have been left alone and seeded with lime-stone loving plants, many of which are used by the caterpillars of butterflies and moths. The site has already attracted small blues, common blues, brown argus and wall browns.

If only some councils would treat roadside verges, whether motorways or dual carriageways, as vitally important sites for wild flowers, insects and wild life instead of mowing them. The same applies to so many of our country roads and lanes whose wild flowers seem to act as an irritant to tidy-minded council jobsworths who seem to prefer to see the countryside resembling a tidy municipal park.

The one butterfly which seemed to survive and even thrive in the recent incessant rains is the meadow brown. A large field nearby, awash with unmown grass, is alive with these butterflies, many even flying in the rain when disturbed. When it is pouring I imagine that the insects seek refuge in the depths of the grass before again emerging when warmed by a glimpse of sunlight. Numbers usually peak by the end of July and disappear from most sites by the end of August.

Incidentally, have any readers yet spotted the day flying humming bird hawk-moth? Last year was apparently remarkable for the numbers seen and the latest issue of Butterfly Conservation magazine tells me that there were over 9,096 sightings from over 8,000 people, the greatest total ever recorded. Somehow, though, I don't think this year is going to match up!

I understand that East Devon Heath Week is scheduled to take place from Sunday, July 29 to August 3 and will include a vast variety of activities for all the family. Space precludes a detailed itinerary but a sample peek over the week reveals pond dipping on the RSPB heathland reserve at Aylesbeare Common; a family mountain bike safari at Mutter's Moor near Sidmouth; a reptile ramble at Trinity Hill Nature Reserve; Turbaries film night at Kilmington village hall; a walk round Bystock Pools to look for bats, using detectors; a heathland and quarry walk at Blackhill Quarry, near Woodbury and a dawn to dusk day spent at the RSPB Aylesbeare Reserve, looking for damselflies, butterflies, dragonflies, moths and nightjars.

In some cases booking is essential and either a donation is suggested or a booking fee may be required. Call 01404 46663 for details or go to info@eastdevonaonb.org.uk.

Meanwhile, last Saturday the newly rebuilt Fine Foundation Chesil Beach Centre held an open day to allow the public to see and test the new facilities. The new Centre now has an education room, information point and a cafe run by Master Chef winner 2009 Mat Follas as well as a boardwalk across the lagoon, built by 26 Engineer Regiment and sponsored by the Court Lee of the Island and Royal Manor of Portland. If you're in the area it's well worth a visit.

The Centre is also featuring a summer exhibition "A Celebration of Dorset's Living Seas" which will run until September 9. The exhibit, which celebrates the remarkably diverse coastline and marine life of Dorset, includes work by local artists and school groups, and local photography as well as conservation information.

Fun, food and friends at Trill summer festival

A LONG weekend in Devon. A few hundred people. Rolling fields and ancient woodland. An abundance of ideas, fun, food and friends.

The outdoor festival has long been a celebrated part of British summer. In our increasingly commercial world, many people are now rediscovering the joys and benefits of more local, less crowded and blessedly sponsor-free events.

Trill Summer Festival is one of this new breed of unashamedly small and non-commercial events, its heart firmly rooted in the native, natural pleasures to be found in its immediate surroundings. Each day of the Festival offers a host of activities ranging from inspiring speakers and creative workshops to outdoor adventures and marvellous music. There'll be a strong focus on biodiversity, sustainability, eco-energy, environment and local food.

And, as you would expect from an organic farm with its own chef in residence, the food is superb... delicious and nutritious, wild-harvested, from the farm or locally sourced.

If this all sounds a bit too civilised for the more seasoned festival-goer, fear not. Come sundown, special guests will bring each day to a rousing, celebratory end with music, dancing and other nocturnal delights. Revellers still unwilling to retire to their tents can then sit out under the stars, enjoying the camp-fire.

The Trill Summer Festival takes place from Thursday, August 2nd to Sunday, August 5th at Trill Farm, Musbury.

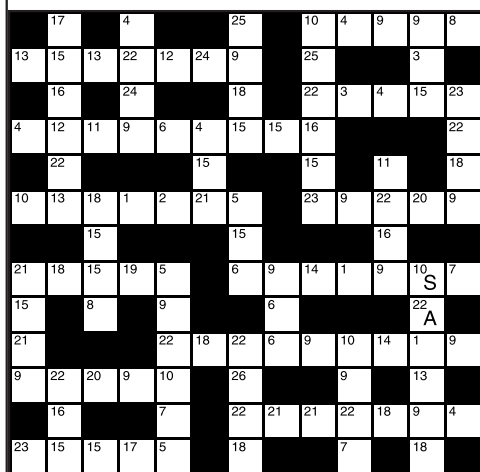

Tickets are available from £25 (£12.50 for kids) and are available online at www.trillsummerfestival.co.uk or by email post@trillfarm.co.uk. For more details call 01297 63113.

Don't miss your favourite acts at Sidmouth Folk Week – book your tickets now!

WHILST it's business as usual for the festival build team as they get everything in place for the summer's best music-filled holiday (the marquees are arriving, the bunting is out, the fun is about to begin!), they're getting excited about seeing some of their musical heroes!

Celtic musical legends, you say? Oh yes, they've got them.

Three of the tradition's current movers and shakers, Michael McGoldrick, John McCusker and John Doyle – join us at The Ham Marquee on Sunday, August 5th. Expect musical fireworks from these masters of flute, whistle and Uilleann pipes, fiddle, guitar and song.

You know Donal Lunny? That's the Donal Lunny who has been at the forefront of Irish music for decades, as a founding member of seminal bands like Planxty, The Bothy Band and Moving Hearts? Well, how about a Donal Lunny, Pdraig Rynne & Sylvain Barou final night Ham concert, on Friday, August 10th.

Oh, and not forgetting Dervish – described as “the apex of Irish music, period!” at The Ham on Saturday, August 4th.

Thanks to the generous support of Creative Scotland, a wealth of talent and creativity from north of the border will be showcased throughout the week: from mighty traditions bearers Dick Gaughan and Archie Fisher, to fast-rising stars such as young singer and guitarist Ewan McLennan and multi-award winning fiddle-led Highlanders Rua Macmillan Trio.

Organisers are looking forward to the epicly proportioned Treacherous Orchestra at The Bulverton on Tuesday, August 7th, who promise to blast your socks off with their mighty wall of sound. Eleven of them...on one stage!

For something completely different, Caledonia's New Hardy Sons show comes to The Manor Pavilion on Wednesday, August 8th. Sokobauno Puppet Theatre and Glasgow-based guitarist, singer, interpreter of traditional ballads and writer/composer of new songs, Alasdair Roberts present an intriguing tale of death and resurrection with Scottish Mummerys play Galoshins told through live music, puppetry and shadow theatre.

And that's just scraping the surface of what's on offer throughout the week. There is plenty to keep you busy including workshops, intimate venue concerts, informal sessions, dance displays, In The Tradition events, ceilidhs, social dance, family festival, Shooting Roots events and more!

If you can't be there all week with an all-in-one or week season tickets, you can go for the weekend, a single day, or individual events – all choices are catered for with the flexible ticketing options.

There's still time to buy event tickets for the highlights at the Ham Marquee and Bulverton each day. Be sure you don't miss the Chris Barber Big Band in a pre-festival special on Thursday at 8pm; War Horse – The Concert (3pm), Show of Hands with Miranda Sykes (8pm) and Kissmet (8.15pm) on Friday; Black Umfolosi (3.15pm), Dervish (8pm), and Stygiens (8.15pm) on Saturday. Sunday offers Chris Wood (3.15pm), Michael McGoldrick, John McCusker & John Doyle (8pm), and Seth Lakeman (8.15pm); and Monday features Jackie Oates (3.15pm), Norma Waterson & Eliza Carthy with The Gift Band (8pm), Edward II (8.15pm); while Tuesday has Brass Monkey (3.15pm) Spiers & Boden (8pm) and Treacherous Orchestra (8.15pm).

Mick Ryan's Folk Opera The Pauper's Path To Hope (3.15pm) kick off Wednesday, and are followed by Martin Simpson Trio (8pm), and Must Come Down - Morris Offspring (8.15pm); and Thursday offers up Archie Fisher & Dick Gaughan (3.15pm), June Tabor & Oysterband (8pm), and Jason Wilson Band (8.15pm).

And finally on Friday you can enjoy the Crucible Trio (3.15pm), Donal Lunny, Pdraig Rynne & Sylvain Barou (7.30pm), Whapweasel (8pm).

Sell out choir concert delights audience

SEATON'S Voice were delighted to host a fantastic sell out performance of the Axe Valley Community Choir concert at 'The Gateway', Seaton Town Hall on Saturday, July 14th.

The event was organised to launch the newly recorded choir CD 'We Made It Through the Rain' and to fundraise for Macmillan Cancer Support and the Town Hall.

The packed audience were treated to a mixture of music and songs. Choir members Ben and Gill Jones gave a lovely rendition of 'To Make You Feel My Love', Elaine Stratford ended the Jubilee song 'Sing' with a beautiful solo and Mary Bowles delighted with 'Moon River'. This was another triumph for the choir's Musical Director, Edward Jacobs, who also played classical and lighter piano solos during the performance. As well as directing the Axe Valley Community Choir Edward also works as a performer, music teacher and music consultant. He spends part of his week in South East Cornwall, and during the performance one of his pupils from Saltash, nine year old Shannah Russell made a special appearance. She wowed the crowd with her solo 'My Heart Will Go On'. Another guest artist, talented saxophonist, Jonathan Davies, a local seventeen year old played two very polished pieces. Tina Mackenney, at short notice, stepped in to accompany the choir on the electric piano and Simon Greenwood was bass guitarist. He was also the sound engineer and recorded and mixed the choir CD at his studio in Exeter. The voices of the seventy strong choir harmoniously filled the room and the audience didn't want it to end, so the choir delighted with an encore of 'When I Fall In Love'. "We can't wait for a return performance", said Carol Manley from Seaton's Voice.

Your fantastic guide of what to do and see in the Summer Holidays

We've got the lot ...

WITH the school holidays now upon us, and the sun having made its long-awaited appearance over last weekend, tourists are starting to flock to this area.

With the tough economy at present, many people are sacrificing their holidays abroad this year and choosing British resorts instead.

Tourism is the lifeblood of this particular area and already our resorts are seeing an increasing number of visitors, especially at weekends.

If you take a look at the beauty of our seaside towns and surrounding country areas, who wants to spend several hours queuing in Terminal 5 at Heathrow airport, especially as there's every likelihood you will be separated from your luggage for ever more.

A leisurely drive down the A303 or the M5, even at peak times, is much more sensible.

The triangle that makes up East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset has some of the most spectacular scenery in the British Isles with a welcome second to none.

As part of the Jurassic Coast, a World Heritage Site, we sit on equal terms with the Taj Mahal and Grand Canyon.

And we do so with every right for when it comes to heritage we are right up there with the top tourist spots in the world.

This supplement, Summer 2012, is designed to show off our area to its best

...a concise record of all the best things about spending the lazy, hazy days of summer in picturesque East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset.

This is a Jurassic Triangle - and if you get lost there will always be a friendly soul to put you back on the right track again.

Summer 2012 contains dozens of ideas of how to spend your time in our company wisely, where to eat and places to visit.

There really is something for everyone - no matter what age.

From genteel cream teas in village settings, to bracing clifftop walks, or traditional family pursuits on sun-kissed beaches, Summer 2012 will point you in the right direction.

Escot Gardens, Maze & Forest Adventure

Escot launches summer event season with spectacular evening horseback falconry and jousting display

THE sun shone just for one evening last week and Escot's new Falconry arena basked in the warmth of the applause from the audience as the launch event of the summer season got underway with an official opening by singer, Elkie Brooks.

Jonathan Marshall, Escot's resident falconer put on spectacular display of horseback falconry and medieval jousting. Flying his majestic Golden Eagle, 'Samson' with his 7 foot wingspan as well as the fastest of all birds of prey, the Peregrine Falcon. The invited guests were delighted as the birds swooped in low over their heads and enjoyed Jonathan's entertaining commentary and tales of falconry. The silent approach of the beautiful barn owl surprised the audience and was the definite winner of the 'aahhh' factor.

Jonathan Marshall is considered one of the country's most innovative and exciting falconers using Spanish Lusitano horses during the performance, the horses did not flinch as the birds flew between their legs and both horse and rider amazed the crowd with precision dressage moves.

The highlight for the children, and many of the grown-ups too, was the medieval jousting event. Told as story between good and evil, the black knight and the nobleman, the crowd booed, hissed and cheered as the tale unfolded to its dramatic climax.

"We are delighted that the opening event of the summer season at Escot went so well and we hope that many visitors will come and enjoy the special evening horseback falconry and jousting shows taking place throughout the summer." Said Robin Savill, General Manager, Escot.

The evening's entertainment was further heightened by David Marshall one of the UK's top operatic tenors who performed opera favourites as well as a grand finale from Phantom of the Opera.

Escot has daily falconry shows available to all park visitors at no extra charge and special evening horseback falconry and jousting shows every Thursday from 7pm – 9pm, throughout July and August. Adults £6.00. Children £5.00. Refreshments available to purchase.

Win a Family Day out at Escot

For all lovers of Nature, Escot is a totally new gardens experience. It is uniquely attractive to garden enthusiasts and families alike. Here are champion trees and elegant shrubs amidst woodland paths, picnic spots and forest playgrounds. As the historian Polwhele said back in the eighteenth century:

"Perhaps there are no plantations in Devonshire so strong and luxuriant as those at Escot." Against the backdrop of this beautiful corner of East Devon, visitors can solve the world class maze, letterbox around the estate (a kind of nature-based treasure hunt), watch the wildlife (including otters, birds of prey, wild boar and red squirrels), discover the Play Barn and the exciting forest play areas (including Forest Leap, a unique woodland drop slide) and enjoy our home cooked local food and delicious cream teas.

Renting as a way of life

ANDREW Luxton, Partner of Stags Residential Lettings Department reports that long term rentals are becoming increasingly common. Recent studies show a decline in home ownership resulting in long time private renting becoming a dominant trend. For many renting has always been the most attractive option, giving freedom and flexibility to move with far lesser hassle than buying and selling a house. In addition, many do not necessarily rent through choice, but have found with more stringent mortgage lending criteria in place, the need to save for a deposit coupled with the increase cost of living means the time when they are in a position to take the first step into home ownership is coming much later in life. Research shows that more renters are staying in their current properties for extended periods of time and as a result are looking for more stability. On the continent long term renting is very much the norm, with families staying in the same rented property for many years.

As a result many tenants would wish to take a property for a longer period ie: 2 – 3 years plus which is currently rarely offered by the majority of landlords. An agreement upto 3 years can be done as a standard AST but for longer a proper binding tenancy needs to be created and done by Deed.

Andrew Luxton further confirms that as the rental market continues to change with the demand for longer term renting increasing then landlords will need to give consideration to offering longer term lets which in many cases can be beneficial to both parties.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY
SERVICELindy Parry
Chiropodist /
Podiatrist

I have been running my private chiropody / podiatry clinics at Townsend House Surgery for over 3 years and due to demand I have recently increased my days, now holding clinics on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

BVRLA pushes back against fleet 'tax attack'

THE BVRLA has taken the first steps to counter the fleet sector 'tax attack' launched in this year's Budget.

It has written to HM Treasury to express concern over the business car tax measures outlined by the Chancellor and has assembled a 'Business Car Taxation Taskforce' to develop lobbying strategies and technical arguments against what it sees as discrimination against the sector.

The Budget announced last March introduced a series of changes to the company car tax regime and made it much harder for BVRLA members and their customers to claim tax relief (Capital Allowances) on lease and rental vehicles. Documents obtained by the BVRLA under the Freedom of Information Act show that the Government hopes to earn an extra £2bn from company car tax between 2013 and 2017 and make nearly one million fewer business cars eligible for 100% first year or standard tax relief during the same period.

The association believes that these changes will place an even more disproportionate tax burden on essential road transport users and remove a vital stimulus for the ultra-low carbon vehicle market.

"Tax incentives for reducing fleet emissions have worked too well and the government is worried about falling revenues", said BVRLA chief executive John Lewis.

"But these measures are ill-advised, unfair and over aggressive. There is almost total consensus across the road transport and automotive industry that the government is in danger of erecting a massive roadblock across the road to low-carbon motoring".

The newly-formed taskforce plans to commission an independent report that will use member statistics and other data to challenge unfair elements of the government's Capital Allowances regime.

In particular it wants to reverse the decision to remove the 100% first-year capital allowances available on low-emission vehicles from leased cars, which would also impact rental firms.

The group will also seek to challenge the continuing application of the Lease Rental Restriction, which prevents companies deducting the full cost of leasing or renting certain cars from their taxable profits.

The BVRLA has already started trying to persuade the government to introduce a more gradual increase in company car tax for people driving cars emitting between 0 and 75g/km CO2 after April 2015. At the moment, these cars will go from either being taxed at a zero rate or 5% of their P11D price to a 13% rate overnight. It is already making company drivers hold back on choosing an ultra-low emission car while they re-evaluate the impact on their take home pay.

"We understand the need for austerity measures, but this assault on essential road users will result in more harm to the environment. It is even more misguided than the Pasty Tax," said Lewis.

Taking Off The Pressure!

THIS should now be a good time to get your driving out of the way. Your exams coming to an end more free time and hopefully more relaxed. Your complete full driving licence should be the icing on the cake!

And of course essential to your future prospects gaining your freedom and independence is a wonderful thing.

Learning to drive safely for life need not be over expensive with a good top grade instructor because you will need less lessons (not quantity but quality). And learning to drive correctly can be fun and rewarding, so why not give me a ring, have fun, save money, and become a good safe driver, that's my aim and is should be yours as well.

By the way you will be driving the latest Clio TomTom (so easy to drive).

Fita 500 further enhanced with new colours and trim upgrades

THE popular Fiat 500 city car, which recently smashed through the 100,000 sales mark in the UK (more than 102,000 at the end of June), has been further improved with a range of bold new colours and upgraded interior trims that better match the exterior.

Six stunning new colours are introduced: Countrypolitan

Yellow and New Age Cream solid paints, and Groove Metal Grey, Epic Blue, Chill-out Purple and Idol Pink metallics.

New Chocolate brown/Ivory fabric and Grey/Black fabric interior trim has also been introduced for the interior. New two-tone leather trims will be available at the end of the year, replacing and enhancing the current leather finishes.

A new 'short-fin design' antenna and 15-inch alloy wheels are also part of the design upgrade. Despite the product improvements, prices for the Fiat 500 have not changed, and the car still represents outstanding value for money.

The Fiat 500 range starts at £9960 (OTR) for the 1.2 Pop, rising to £19,060 (OTR) for the 500CbyGucci TwinAir.

Get tough on drink driving, say motorists

EIGHTY per cent of motorists say those who repeatedly drink drive should have their vehicles seized and sold or scrapped, according to a poll by the IAM (Institute of Advanced Motorists). Fifty per cent think that this should also happen to drivers several times over the limit.

The respondents were also behind reducing the drink-drive limit. Sixty-six per cent want to see the limit reduced, with most of these saying it should be lowered to a maximum of 50mg of alcohol per 100ml of blood. Twenty-eight per cent think we should have a zero-tolerance policy.

People convicted of drink driving generally lose their licence for a year and receive an average fine of £240. Fifty-seven per cent think this is too weak, and that punishments for drink drivers should be tougher – thirty-eight per cent much tougher.

Other findings include:

· Fifty-five per cent of poll respondents support a proportionate, graduated system of penalties, if the limit was reduced. For example, lower penalties would be given to drivers caught under the current limit, but above the new one.

· Almost half of respondents admit to having a drink while driving, within the current limit.

· Seventy-nine per cent say a decrease in the limit wouldn't affect their enjoyment of an evening out. Nineteen per cent said it would.

· Eighty-four per cent said a reduction in the limit wouldn't change their plans to go out.

IAM chief executive Simon Best said: "The support is there for tougher treatment of drink drivers.

"Not only do the majority want a lower limit – they also want tougher punishment for those that break the law, especially the worst offenders who present the greatest danger to other road users, their passengers and themselves.

"Our poll shows a desire to see more effective drink drive levels as well as much greater consistency of enforcement, prosecution, and sentencing, which reflects the level of danger associated with drinking drivers."

D Division
AFTER no cricket for two weeks, Seaton travelled to Halberton & Sampford Peverell (HSP) in the return fixture to which Seaton lost by ten wickets earlier in the season.

Although there was another full squad to choose from, it didn't start well. Captain Ben Morgan lost the toss and the visitors being put into bat, losing Matt Hancock in the first over.

Steve Pritchard joined Alex Hunt and both batted superbly and rebuilt from the early loss with a partnership of 50.

Steve was soon after caught at cover and Alex soon followed.

Mark Bray and Mike Wheeler made another 50 partnership and at drinks Seaton were a healthy 132-3.

Cue the Seaton collapse: Mike Wheeler was bowled just after the drinks break with Ed Hunt, Reid Mawdesley and the skipper walking back to the pavilion very quickly.

Mark Bray, after a superb knock of 52, was out not long after and Joe Berry did not last long leaving Seaton on 161-9 with 16 overs left.

Number 11 Phil Collins supported Ben Copp as they put on a 51 partnership for the last wicket to leave Seaton 212 all out as Babbacombe eventually led in the last over.

After the tea break, Halberton looked like they were sailing again until Ben Copp took the wicket of the opener and continued to bowl 11 overs economically.

Ben Morgan and Joe Berry worked well in tandem once again - Joe bowling off spin this week - and wickets fell steadily. Only a useful sixth wicket partnership for HSP held up the Seaton bowlers.

Joe Berry eventually took the wicket with a superb match changing catch in the deep.

Wickets carried on falling as Mike Wheeler held onto a catch that went so high off Ben Morgan it could have had snow on it. It was a pivotal catch that proved the outcome of the game.

Ben Copp took the last two wickets to give Seaton a much needed win of 98 runs. Berry's final figures were 4-37 with Morgan and Copp both claiming three wickets for 20ish runs.

Morgan said: "This was a fantastic result for us after the way they demolished us at our place.

"I have always said we bat all the way down and Phil and Ben Copp showed that today both applying themselves and using their brain for the situation.

"Again I was very pleased with the team spirit and the team performance in the field. Mike and Mark's tough catches were match winning catches which again is brilliant to see under pressure."

Feniton lost to Yelverton on Saturday which leaves Seaton in second place, to which Ben Morgan said: "We are not getting carried away, we have some tough matches coming up in the last third of the season as everyone seems to be beating each other so we will see where we are at the end of the season. We just need to stay together and keep playing good cricket."

Seaton 212 (M Bray 53, M Wheeler 32; J Turner 5-46), Halberton and Sampford Peverell 114 (D Partridge 28; J Berry 4-37, B Morgan 3-20, B Copp 3-22).

SHRUBBERY HOTEL SOMERSET LEAGUE

Division Eight (South)
WITH the sun shining on the artificial wicket at Wembdon, All Saints won only their second toss of the season and opted to bat first.

James Trott made conditions look easy, putting on 62 with Josh Short (14) for the first wicket, before falling himself for a very fine 64 with the score on 101 at drinks.

With 200 beckoning, Saints suffered a collapse as Cozens' spin picked up 5-33. Saints went from 101-1 to 108-6, but a gritty display from Derek Seward (19*) and James Nunns (15*) saw the visitors to 145-6 from their 45.

What looked like a below-par score proved to be more than enough, as early wickets fell to the Nunns brothers.

Shaun Wells-Burr took the catch of the season to remove the dangerous Cozens, while Josh Short (9-0-27-3) and Fraser Wallace in particular (9.1-4-12-3) bowled excellently to skittle the home side for just 77, with extras on 27!

ON THE SPOT...

VIEW FROM Sport puts Sidmouth CC's NICK GINGELL

UNDER THE SPOTLIGHT

Q How long have you been involved in the local cricket scene? Who have you played for?

A I have been playing cricket since I was eight years old (21 years). I have played senior cricket since I was 11. I am a firm believer in club loyalty and have been at Sidmouth all my life. I played age group representative cricket and one friendly for the Devon senior side.

Q Name the three best players you played alongside so far and why

A Neil Hancock would be number one. Will Murray is the best bowler I have played with. On talent alone - Hilton Cartwright. He was a young Australian we had a couple of years ago and was a superb athlete.

Q What's the best away ground you've played on?

A I love playing at Sandford, nice setting, good wicket and the tea is phenomenal. Away from Devon I will go for the Farmers Ground in Jersey. We currently tour there biannually and this relatively new ground gets better each time we go back.

Q Do any games stick in your memory?

A Every debut I have made has been very special. From a personal viewpoint it would be the opening game this season against North Devon. I scored 58 not out coming in at 40-6 chasing 161 to win against the defending champions. We then slipped to 130-9 but I managed to hack the remaining 31 runs on my own to see us home, sealing victory with a six off Matt Westaway. From a team point of view I will never forget Plympton away in 2008. The game itself was pretty non-eventful but this was where we clinched the league title. This was the first title for most of a very young side who had stuck together since being relegated only two years previously.

Q How would you improve things at Sidmouth CC?

A We are slightly slow to react to development of the game. We tend to hang in the past rather than trying to be pioneering and dynamic.

Q What is your top score?

A I scored 172 for the 2nd XI against North Devon last year which is a current Sidmouth league record. This was my first game of cricket after 10 weeks out following an ankle operation.

Q Name some young players we should look out for in the future.

A Dominic Bess is the latest off the Bess family conveyor belt and is a very promising off spinner/batsman. Another name is nine-year-old Max Hancock. We have never produced a left-arm spinner at the club, something we have always cried out for and we are all crossing our fingers that Max could be the answer in the future.

Axe Valley Runners take on the tram

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

AFTER a showery day it was a very pleasant surprise to have a balmy evening for the annual AVR Race The Tram relay race.

Many AVR's and friends enjoyed a trip to Colyton from Seaton and then the race began.

There were three teams and the juniors started by running from Colyton to Colyford in the safer fields then passed the baton to the senior members of each team.

Much to the dismay of the tram driver, this year it was the turn of the AVR A team to win taking 14:26. The tram then screeched to a halt in 16:10, closely followed by the Red team, 16:36 and finally the blues in 17:18.

The gang then descended on Phil Bayliss's beach hut where Eleanor Wood and her helpers Rick and Andy organised a beach picnic of pre-cooked hot dogs and doughnuts.

Head Junior Coach Paul Johns presented the following awards at the feast: Junior Boy of the Year - James Knapp, Junior Girl of the Year - Caitlin Bee, Most Improved Runner - Ethan Day and Chris Levene Perpetual Trophy for Endeavour - Mollie Hansford.

A great time was had by all, but as usual the real winner was the Devon Air Ambulance with the Tramway donating AVR's £100 donation to this worthy cause.

On Wednesday, Liam Roberts raced in the Vic Musgrove Fast Five 5km in Telford. He finished 4th in a 17 second personal best of 15:46.

This is a good step in the right direction having so far only trained to build fitness and will soon begin to work on his speed to be fully race fit for his main race in September.

Haytor Rocks on Dartmoor was the venue for the Haytor Heller on Saturday; 6ish tough miles of rugged moorland running in perfect weather.

Graham Newton led in AVR and took first placed 60 age group prize with a cool time of 53:21 in 46th place.

Eleanor Wood was second lady finisher and first female vet 55, 59th overall in 55:21.

Richard Hale was next finisher down the steep grassy downhill slope to the finish with 1:01:58 in 116th spot.

Diane Newton finished 255th with a time of 1:32:08.

Three generations of one family took part in the Race for Life at Westpoint on Sunday.

Caitlin Bee (15) flew around the 5km course in 22 minutes finishing in the top 15 runners out of a field of nearly 3000.

Michelle Bee followed in 27 minutes finishing in the top 50 and Ann Morgan jog/walked around the course in 51 minutes.

Sunday's weather was perfect for Every Which Way But Loose, a self-navigation event from Umberne Village Hall in which the runners had to answer questions at each checkpoint to prove that they had been there, powered on by the promise of post-run pasties, cakes and teas.

Times are rather unimportant for a social event like this, but the fastest in the 14-mile long route was Garry Perratt on his lonesome in 1:57.

The Stupendous Six of Geoff Woodward, Eleanor Wood, Steve Reynolds, Andy Bowman, Phil Bayliss and Richard Dodge were ninth in 2:45; the Terrible Trio of Chris Irving, Ian Clements and Dave Thomas 16th, 2:58 and Andy Goodman 19th, 3:04.

The Dynamic Duo of Jon Day and son Ethan were fastest in the eight-mile route taking 1:25 and the Frolicsome Foursome of Bridget Keefe, Emma Ellynn, Sue Venn and Gill Day were 7th in 2:49.

Many thanks must go to all the helpers in the hall and at the water stations but especially to Ganesha Wholefoods who kindly provided the veggie pasties for free.

It is expected that the run will have raised about £150 for Umberne Hall funds.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

THREE intrepid Honiton Runners turned out on Saturday, July 13th for the Otter Rail and River 10k run.

This is a flattish course but with plenty of mud which started and finished in Tipton St John.

The first runner home for Honiton was Tim Legg in a time of 45 minutes 9 seconds and 18th place. He found it tough going in the early stages due to slipping on the mud and was overtaken by Howard Bidmead.

However Tim soon gained his confidence on some harder ground and using it to his advantage he was soon in front of Howard again. Howard finished in 31st position in 47.10.

Graham Rooms wore his new HRC vest for the first time and came in 44th in 50.19. There were 117 finishers.

The Haytor Heller took place last Sunday and this is a favourite of some Honiton runners. It consists of six miles of breathtaking off-road running in the heart of Dartmoor.

It has a tough start with the start line being half way up the hill to Haytor Rock.

The course is then predictably hilly taking in Hound Tor but it has a fast downhill finale to the finish at the bottom of Haytor Rock.

The stony ground makes the terrain tough going but spectacular views make up for this.

Bruce Strawbridge led the Honiton runners home coming 44th in 52:33. Howard Bidmead came 63rd in 56:04 and the lady representatives Clare Melbourne and Tracey Strawbridge came 217th and 222nd respectively.

Clare finished less than a minute ahead of Tracey in 1:15:42 with Tracey finishing in 1:16:16. There were 257 finishers and Arran Tockwell won the race in 42:04.

HAVING been away on holiday I have three weeks of results to report and the season to round up, writes GRAHAM INGRAM.

Wasps started well but then fell foul when they forfeited three games - losing nine points and finishing in tenth place!

Flamingos consolidated their place at the top with victories in their last two games against Bo-Peeps and Uplowman, ensuring that they would be champions.

OPG made sure of second place with victories over Toucans and Bo-Peeps, finishing just two points behind Flamingos and six points in front of third placed Uplowman, who ended the season with a defeat at the hands of the champions and victory over bottom placed JD Tyres.

If Hi Q hadn't forfeited a match earlier in the season then they would have been in third place, but as it was they had to make do with fourth thanks to two victories - against JD Tyres and Pixies.

Tip Top Trees finished fifth, despite losing to Pixies; they bounced back to defeat Howden Hawks who finished in seventh. Their end of season was disappointing, picking up six points when first Wasps and the Bo-Peeps forfeited their matches.

In their final game Hawks met 3Ts and were defeated. Sidmouth Toucans finished in mid table, ending their season with a defeat at the hands of OPG, before drawing 35-35 with Tip Top Trees, the only draw of the season.

Bo-Peeps lost to Flamingos, but played the game with six players, then forfeited the game to Hawks and were docked three points, before losing their final game to OPG, all in all a disappointing end to their campaign.

Pixies finished with a good win over 3Ts before losing their last game to Hi Q, whilst JD Tyres were unlucky in both their last two games - against Hi Q and Uplowman, when a single goal more in each game would have ensured them of a point in each game and two more in total.

RESULTS: Flamingos 54 Bo-Peeps 21; OPG 51 Sidmouth Toucans 32; Tip Top Trees 25 Pixies 37; Wasps 0 Howden Hawks 20

football summer round-up

FARWAY UNITED

ALTHOUGH it's still early days and a few players have decided to step down due to other commitments, Farway hope to retain the main core of the team they had last season.

Ben Williams wants to spend more time with his family; Martin Summers and Phil Woodley have work commitments - all these players will be missed by the club as they have been key members of the team over the last few years.

The squad at the club is healthy, with a number of players that played in the reserves last season set to step up into the first team.

The likes of Chris Haines, Stephen Croft, Darren Cooke and Greg McCullum, to name but a few, were on the fringes of the first team last year and will be pushing hard to make a place in the team their own.

Andy Baley will still be at the club and involved whenever he has the time. He has been a tremendous servant and ambassador for Farway and would be greatly missed if he was not still involved in some way.

The club has had a couple of new faces at training, which was very encouraging. Farway would welcome anyone who wants to come and enjoy their football at a good standard and with good players.

Training takes place on a Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting at 7pm on the home pitch. Any players who want to play for a good team at a friendly and ambitious club should come along and give it a chance.

Sophie also won the junior intermediate class riding Humphrey just adding 0.4 time penalty to her very good dressage score of 27.9. The team members were Kate Sopwith and Layla Felgate; Kate came eighth and Layla third individually.

The senior intermediate teams came first and second in the team event and the open team won. The winning intermediate team members were: Steph Bere, Olivia Bengier, Emily Gawler and Tim Rogers - individually Steph 3rd, Emily 5th and Tim 9th.

hockey Sidmouth & Ottery New season, new club

ALTHOUGH the start of the hockey league season is over two months away, preparations are already being made, and following the mid-summer merger of Sidmouth and Ottery Crickets hockey clubs, it is clear that exciting times lie ahead.

Spokesman for the new club Ian Brown said: "Whilst it is hoped that a successful showing from the Great Britain hockey teams at the Olympics will rekindle interest in the sport, player numbers have been dwindling over recent years and following lengthy discussions, meetings between the respective clubs memberships and ultimately a vote, the two former rivals have amalgamated to make what it is hoped will be a strong and vibrant club.

"The new club will be known as Sidmouth & Ottery Hockey Club - a name which, although perhaps a little unoriginal, does describe exactly how the new club has come together. East Devon would have been apt but a team based in Exeter already goes by the name.

"There will be six mens and four ladies senior teams and a crucial part of the club's continuing development is its commitment to junior hockey.

"Training centres will continue to operate as previously on Sunday mornings in both Sidmouth and Ottery to continue to allow the net of participation to be cast wide.

"Juniors will have the opportunity to participate in competitive games (something that has not been possible at Sidmouth in recent years) versus various other local clubs.

"The clubhouse at the Fortfield will be the social hub of the amalgamated club and owing to the number of games that will need to be played each week, fixtures will take place on the artificial pitches at both Sidmouth and Ottery.

"Administration linked to the amalgamation has been occupying the majority of time recently but it is hoped that shortly the club will have decided on a new kit and badge as well as a new website going live.

"The club is actively seeking sponsorship and is able to accommodate various levels of commitment to an exciting new sports club with a membership surely to be one of the largest in the region.

"A shirt sponsor will have far reaching exposure as the club will be participating in games in all parts of the West region, including the depths of Cornwall to the west and into Wiltshire in the east.

"The depth of the new club will serve to be an advantage as the spread of teams will cater for all ages, levels of ability and commitment. The club is committed to ensuring that its membership thrives and enjoys hockey.

"Pre-season training will commence on Tuesday, July 24th at the Sidmouth Astro turf and the following day at the Ottery pitch. Both sessions will run from 7-8pm with everybody welcome.

"The aim is to encourage everybody back into enjoying hockey before the serious training starts as the season gets closer."

New members are welcome - for information, Ian Brown can be contacted on 07855862135.

bowls round-up More rain hits fixtures

AXMINSTER with David Harris

ANOTHER period of rain-affected matches with two games cancelled - away to Crewkerne, through rain, and at home to Taunton Deane who were unable to raise a side.

In our mixed friendly games the heavy grass greens have again proved to be our downfall in our away games when we lost three triples matches.

We did enjoy success in our one home rinks match against Feniton (85-51) with wins for William Cook, Morrison Brown, Pam Hunter & Margaret Crompton (24-7), Eve Cole, David Sluman, Brian Clark & Marion Harris (25-14), Margaret Brown, Pam Clark, Chris Todd & David Harris (19-13).

Meanwhile Lilian Lovatt, John Hill, Ann Clayton & Bob Sherborne tied (17-17). This was David Sluman's first match for us after his initial training and he played very well.

The first of our defeats came at the hands of Bridport (48-87) with losses on all rinks. Scores: Morrison Brown, Alan Taylor & Marion Harris (12-17), Phil White, Brian Clark & David Harris (13-18), William Cook, Margaret Brown & Ann Clayton (14-25) and John Hill, Pam Hunter, & Margaret Crompton (9-27).

We then lost 54-76 at Taunton Bowls Club again with no winning rinks. Scores: John Hill, Joan Quick & Marion Harris (16-20), William Cook, Phil White & David Harris (10-14), Morrison Brown, Brian Clark & Ann Clayton (12-17), and Margaret Brown, Ken Quick & Frank Bridge (16-25).

Our final defeat was at Dunkswell (63-83) where we did have a winning rink in Lilian Lovatt, Steven Apsey & Ann Clayton (16-11), but defeats for Phil White, John Chance & David Harris (19-20), Barbara Mowatt, Ken Quick & Margaret Crompton (13-21) and Joan Quick, Alan Taylor & Marion Harris (15-31).

We fared little better in the Over 60s Devon Men's League. Firstly we lost narrowly at home to North Tawton (35-39) with Morrison Brown, John Chance & Bob Sherborne managing a creditable tie (21-21) while John Hill, Frank Bridge & David Harris lost (14-18).

In our other fixture, Ottery St Mary gained revenge for their substantial loss at Axminster earlier in the season by thrashing us 65-10 with both our rinks losing heavily.

We all enjoyed Captain's Day on July 1st when Bob and Pam treated us all to a splendid lunch followed by a round-robin competition which was won by Allan Brown and Chris Todd respectively.

This was also Allan's first club game after completing his training period - well done from all at the club.

SEATON with Linda Stone

The week started with a home game against EBUA - South West.

Five rinks played a friendly match which was won by EBUA 109-80 shots. Seaton's top rink was L. Hurley-Smith, L. Allison, M. Carvell and R. McDonald.

On Sunday, five mixed triples travelled to Dorchester where they played South Dorset BA. The result was a win for Seaton 91-83 shots and the top triple was A. Mayhew, T. Hurley-Smith and I. Steer winning 27-6.

Ilminster travelled to Seaton for a return match. It was very close, Seaton just losing out by one shot, 104-105. The top rink for Seaton was L. Hurley-Smith, J. Bellamy, K. Russell and L. Stone winning 21-12 shots.

The ladies had an evening friendly match against Feniton on Thursday. Three triples played but unfortunately we lost 45-61 shots.

Top triple for Seaton was A. Joyner, L. Stone and P. Whitworth. The final match of the week was again a ladies match, against Madeira, a win for Seaton 59-45 shots.

FENITON with Roger Smith

FENITON men's team finished their County Trophy league season with a convincing win over Seaton by 83-68.

The winning rinks were R Cooke, E Cox, D Evans and K Lovering 29-16 and G Phillips, J Livings, Ro Clarke and R Smith 24-17 and A Evans, J Rolph, I Veitch and A Kury 20-15.

The men's over 60s A team match against Sidmouth was cancelled due to a waterlogged green.

The B team travelled to Chardstock and in a match interrupted by rain lost by 32-34. The winning rink was G Phillips, L Ley and Ro Clarke 20-10.

The ladies lost a narrow East Devon League match against Topsham by five shots. The winning rink was G Blackmore, Ru Clarke, G North and L Eveleigh.

However, they defeated Seaton in a friendly match at Seaton by 61-45. The winning rinks were G Blackmore, L Domett and L Eveleigh 28-9 and N Cox, E Rolph and R Veitch 22-15.

The mixed team suffered a narrow home defeat against Heavitree by 88-91. The winning rinks were N Cox, C Cheesley, E Rolph and K Lovering 26-21, L Crook, J Skinner, G Phillips and I Veitch 20-16 and R Cooke, B Halse, E Cox and D Evans 17-16.

They then played away at Exonia and won a close match by 76-71. The winning rinks were D Phillips, D Morris, M Eveleigh and D Evans 27-11 and F Jones, L Norris, R Clarke and L Eveleigh 23-17.

golf round-up

HONITON with Andy Wagner

SUNDAY FUN

OUR fiendish captain, Paul Dimond, deigned we should play a three irons and a putter Stableford competition to keep us all entertained.

Disallowing woods on a course with no run made club selection very interesting. If anyone cares I didn't use my wedge until the last so I could have played two irons and a putter (though the putter wasn't much better).

In the end John Marchant took the day with a below par 34pts playing the same three clubs he plays week in week out!

TUESDAY MIXED

AMERICAN Foursomes was enjoyed by the players on Tuesday - and the winners with 36pts were Elizabeth Ward and Seniors Vice-Captain Bob Underwood.

In second place were Maureen Tollemache and Richard Pyle with 35pts, on countback from lady captain Jackie Seager and Terry Lindsdell.

LADIES' SECTION

LADY captain, Jackie Seager, presided over a very enjoyable competition on Wednesday to celebrate her 'Lady Captain's Day'.

Sixty-seven ladies took part in the individual Stableford and, though the going was rough, the winners brought in some very respectable scores.

In the Silver Division Ann Trayling came first with 36 points, Diana Gee second with 32 points and Chris Pearce third with 31 points.

In Bronze One Division Jan Dickinson was first with 29 points, Linda Northover second with 28 points on countback from Joan Smith, also with 28 points.

In Bronze Two Division the winner was Majsan Stroud with 31 points, while Jean Putt and Sue Long were second and third with 28 points, also separated on countback.

The ten hole competition was won by Caroline Wickenden, and overall winner of the Lady Captain's prize went to Henrietta Bradshaw with a magnificent 39 points.

There were also prizes for nearest the pin on holes 2 and 12, won respectively by Anne Verplanke and Henrietta Bradshaw, and a Lady Captain's 'Secret Hole' won by Mad-die Price.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIORS

FORTY-three Seniors competed in Friday's Stableford for the Harris Tankard. Although the breeze got up for the later competitors this did not bother winner Peter Rollason (21) who played in the final group and scored an excellent 43 points.

This was eight strokes better than the runners-up, with second place, on countback, going to Dave Weston (21) and third to Nick Povey (21). Terry Jessup (20) was the player to miss out. Tony Strong recored the only two.

Last Monday, Ashley Wood were the visitors to Axe Cliff in the tenth anniversary match between the two clubs who were competing for the PJ Trophy, presented by Peter Jakes, a member of both clubs.

■ WELL DONE: Lady Captain's Day winner Helen Kenworthy

LADY CAPTAIN'S DAY

A SELECT group of lady golfers overcame the threat of yet more rain and high winds to participate in the Lady Captain's Day.

Having been presented with a 'Be Happy Bag' each, the ladies faced a challenging task of playing on their own course but using a scorecard from another course.

The ingenious idea posed by the Lady Captain, Barbara Cummings, proved to be an enjoyable and thoroughly entertaining initiative with the winner's score reflecting that it doesn't matter where you play - if you are good enough, then you will score well.

First prize was won by Helen Kenworthy with an excellent 39 points, in second place was Sandra Walker and third was Alison Cook.

King to reign at Farway United

Paul takes over at Eastlee

■ NEW GAFFER: Paul King has been appointed Farway United manager

FARWAY United will go into the 2012-13 with a new manager at the helm.

Club stalwart Andy Baily has taken the decision to stand down from the role after a stint that spanned 15 seasons.

During that time Baily led the village team to second place in the Perry Street League Premier Division back in 2004-05 when they finished runners-up to Lyme Regis.

In addition, Baily led the team to two Division One titles and the final of the Devon Intermediate Cup when they were beaten by Kevin Purley Roofing.

Explaining his decision, Baily told VIEW SPORT: "I'll certainly still be around and about on Saturdays – I still enjoy the buzz of matchdays.

"It's a case of Paul (King) holding his hand up and offering his services. I'm sure he'll do a good job – when somebody like that comes forward I felt it was a good time to step aside and let somebody else have a go.

"It will also give me more chances to watch my son Dan, who is playing for Willand Rovers in the Toolstation Western League Premier Division."

The manager's hot-seat will be taken-up by Paul King who has been the club's head coach for the past three seasons.

Bristolian King was a semi-professional player with Devizes Town in his playing days and is the father of Farway's talented young striker Bradley King.

The club's Reserve team will be managed by ex-first teamers Paul Merchant and Nigel Banks.

Other club officers: President – David Lee, Chairman – Steve Loud, Secretary – Willie Rich, Treasurer – Ernie Stobbs.

The club are training on Tuesdays and Thursdays at Eastlee Field (7pm start).
